(nee McKinnon) (formerly Booth, MacKay-Smith) Perhaps her names alone are an indication of the extent she affected her family, her parents, a beloved brother, 3 husbands, 2 sons, 8 step-children, numerous grandchildren and a great-granddaughter, born this September 15th. With great sense of loss, Marjorie's family announce her passing on Sunday September 28th. She was predeceased by her three beloved husbands, C. Rowley Booth, Stuart A. MacKay-Smith and Arne Blyberg. She is survived by her sons John (Wendy) Booth and Bill (Jules) Booth, six grandchildren and one great-granddaughter, along with seven stepchildren, their spouses, their children and grandchildren. "Grammy" delighted in her ever growing family. Always a true lady, Marjorie faced her last challenging years the same way she lived her whole life - with dignity, elegance and an undaunted spirit. There ever was a sparkle in her eyes. An Ottawa native, she lived most of her life in this city and her lovely home in Montebello. She spent 26 winters in Marco Island, Florida with Arne, swimming, playing golf and participating in community and Church services. She was a life member of the Royal Ottawa Golf Club. Marjorie will be best remembered for her love of entertaining, golf, swimming, dancing and a keen interest in her extended family. Her volunteer contributions in Ottawa were numerous including The Ottawa May Court, The Ottawa Day Nursery, The Red Cross, The Ottawa Womens' Canadian Club and several Foundations. A special thanks to the caring staff of the New Edinburgh Square, Rabo Health Care, and the VON. Donations to the VON would be greatly appreciated. Arrangements in care of the Central Chapel of Hulse, Playfair & McGarry, 315 McLeod Street. Funeral services will be held on Friday, October 3, 2003 at 3:00 p.m. at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, 82 Kent Street, Ottawa. Private interment Beechwood Cemetery.
