

Avis de décès

---

Leslie Kajtar John KAYTOR

---

Décès : 1999-08-21

Parution : 2007-09-28

Source(s) : Canoe.ca (Obituaries Today)

---

Leslie "Kajtar" John Kaytor January 31, 1916 - August 21, 1999 Funeral arrangements by Cresmount Funeral Home (Fennell Chapel) Born in Serath Saskatchewan and died August 21, 1999 in Brantford, Ontario. He was an auto mechanic who owned and operated his own business, the first being on Ryckman's Corners in Hamilton starting in 1947. He was also an active member in establishing the present site of the Hamilton Mountain Seventh Day Adventist Church. Leslie also became a R.N.A. in 1968 and practised nursing at Whitby Psychiatric Hospital for 10 years (His patients loved him). Survived by his wife Lillian , daughters Joyce, June and Dawn, son David, by eight grandchildren: Peter, Carrie, Nadine, Heather, Stephen, Melanie, Jari and Trisha and eleven Great-Grandchildren; brothers: Andy, Peter and Tony and sisters: Helen, Marie, Joanne and Wilma. He will be loved and missed by all. Visitation will be held at CRESMOUNT FUNERAL HOME, 322 Fennell Ave.E. on Tuesday from 6-9 p.m. A Chapel Service will be held on Wednesday at 1:00 p.m. Interment at White Chapel Memorial Gardens to follow. If desired, donations can be made to The Canadian Cancer Society. Leslie "Kajtar" John Kaytor January 31, 1916 - August 21, 1999 Funeral arrangements by Cresmount Funeral Home (Fennell Chapel) Born in Serath Saskatchewan and died August 21, 1999 in Brantford, Ontario. He was an auto mechanic who owned and operated his own business, the first being on Ryckman's Corners in Hamilton starting in 1947. He was also an active member in establishing the present site of the Hamilton Mountain Seventh Day Adventist Church. Leslie also became a R.N.A. in 1968 and practised nursing at Whitby Psychiatric Hospital for 10 years (His patients loved him). Survived by his wife Lillian, daughters Joyce, June and Dawn, son David, by eight grandchildren: Peter, Carrie, Nadine, Heather, Stephen, Melanie, Jari and Trisha and eleven Great-Grandchildren; brothers: Andy, Peter and Tony and sisters: Helen, Marie, Joanne and Wilma. He will be loved and missed by all. Visitation will be held at CRESMOUNT FUNERAL HOME, 322 Fennell Ave.E. on Tuesday from 6-9 p.m. A Chapel Service will be held on Wednesday at 1:00 p.m. Interment at White Chapel Memorial Gardens to follow. If desired, donations can be made to The Canadian Cancer Society.

---

<https://www.federationgenealogie.qc.ca/>

ID #317802 - Fédération Québécoise des Sociétés de Généalogie

Exporté le 2026-06-15 10:50