CRAW, Gwen Mary (nee Donley) - Peacefully at Peterborough Regional Health Centre, in her 98th year. Dearly loved wife of the late G. Wilson Craw. Beloved mother of Mary Thompson (Neil) and Robert Craw (Hazel). Dear grandmother of Cathy Craw and aunt of Anne Bollefer both of Toronto. Gwen was predeceased by her sisters Alice Bracken and Doris Holliday. For over 70 years she contributed to music in Peterborough giving freely of her time and talent as an accompanist. She worked with many groups and organizations such as The Madrigal Singers, Kiwanis Music Festival, Music Study Club, Trent Musical Productions as well as playing for the Comstock Musical Broadcasts on radio. She was the first choir director and organist of St. Giles Presbyterian Church and she was a member of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. In recognition of her work, Gwen was inducted into The Peterborough Pathway Of Fame. In keeping with Gwen's wishes a private graveside service will be held following cremation. Memorial donations to the Peterborough Humane Society would be appreciated by the family. 1/28/2004- ID3354436 - Peterborough Examiner
