WEBB, Daniel Roy - In Loving Memory of Daniel Roy Webb, (Danny) of Windy Lake, Ontario died peacefully at age 65 on Saturday, October 10, 2009 in Sudbury Laurentian Hospital after a brave struggle with mesothelioma cancer, better known as asbestos cancer. Born in Sudbury, Ontario, Danny earned his certification for Electrician in 1963 and worked for Falconbridge Mines throughout his entire career until he retired at age 55. Danny continued to work on contract with Total Electrical Systems Inc. providing his expertise on several mining projects. Danny contributed too many charities and gave blood regularly, having celebrated 100 donations as of 2008. Danny is survived by his sons, David and Jayson; his brother, Ken and wife Judy Webb; his sister, Carol and husband Jim Tyson. He is forever remembered as Uncle Danny to Heather, Rodney, Bill, Cathy and Keith. He is lovingly remembered by Aunt Nancy and the families of cousins, Barbara, Gail, Gary, Brenda, and Marlene. A memorial session will be held, Wednesday, October 14, 2009, 11:30 am, at LOUGHEED FUNERAL HOME. A reception will follow. In lieu of flowers, we would be grateful if donations could be made to the Northern Cancer Research Foundation. (Sudbury) "To light a memorial candle, flowers, donations or messages of condolences available on-line at www.lougheed.org"
