TYSON, Marguerite Mignomene Dorina (Doreen) (nee Giguere) - Died October 13, 2009 at the age of 77 at Falconbridge Extendicare after a lengthy illness. Born in Kirkland Lake, Ont. to parents Aldege Giguere (predeceased 1979) and Emma (Biron) (predeceased 1940). Doreen had one sister Connie Dolmovic and one brother David Giguere (predeceased). Doreen met her husband James (Bill) Tyson in Kirkland Lake where they married in 1955 and moved to Sudbury shortly after. Doreen was a devoted housewife who loved cooking, baking, bowling, camping, gardening and raising their three children Glenda, Tom (Jeannette Mousseau) and Sandra Tyson- Rouleau (Gilles). She was especially fond of her grandchildren Brandee and Shannon Perreault and Mireille and Nathan Rouleau. She recently became a great-grandmother to Rylee Paige Ouellet. Doreen will be sadly missed by her long time friend Cecile Desormeaux and her family pet (Chloe). The Tyson family would like to thank the nursing staff at Falconbridge Extendicare during this trying time. Special thanks go out to staff members Teresa and Monika who became family to Mrs. Tyson during her 2-year stay. Cremation will be at Park Lawn Crematorium. At Mrs. Tyson's request there will be no visitation or funeral service. Donations may be made to the Canadian Diabetic Association. Arrangements entrusted to the LOUGHEED FUNERAL HOME. To light a memorial candle, flowers, donations or messages of condolences available on-line at www.lougheed.org
