O'BRIEN, Bill A loving, caring man, a teacher, a coach, a hero. A life well lived, a death celebrated in true Irish form. The love he has shown, the legacy that he leaves, is now the strength his family draws from. Bill was a great mentor to all. He lifted the spirits of the people around him, always ready with a smile, a joke or a shoulder to lean on. He encouraged all to pursue their dreams, to aim high. Gisèle, his loving wife, and the children, Shannon, Chantal, Shawn, Steven, Corey and Kelly mourn the death of their beloved. A private funeral was held in Sudbury, Monday, June 10, 2002, in the Chapel of the CO-OPERATIVE FUNERAL HOME, Sudbury. 6/12/2002- ID459689 - Sudbury Star
